

Mr. Amit kumar Dash

Mr. Amit kumar Dash is currently working as Head of Department (Civil Engineering). His interdisciplinary research interest spans over solar energy, electrical machines, drives and control systems. He has a teaching experience of 17 years. He has graduated from Utkal University, Odisha and Masters degree from GBTU, Lucknow. Presently pursuing PhD in Building integrated Photovoltaic Thermal System.

He has attended many national and international conferences to present papers and has written papers in international journals like Elsevier and IEEE etc. He has attended various FDPs organized by Wipro and NITTTR Chandigarh. Presently working as Chief Proctor of the college which enhances his skills of academic and administrative excellence. He has also guided students of Undergraduate and postgraduate to complete their projects.