

Ms. Akansha Tiwari

Ms. Akansha Tiwari is currently working as an Assistant Professor in Civil Engineering Department of BIT Meerut. Her interdisciplinary research interest area is of Recycled Concrete & Construction Engineering. She has a teaching experience of 3yrs. She has graduated from UPTU Lucknow and did Masters Degree in Structures from UTU Dehradun and achieved a silver Medal.

She has presented two papers on the shear strength behaviour of Recycled coarse aggregate & Recycled Concrete in IRJET. She has also attended National Seminar on Green Building & how the C & D waste can be utilised in Construction Industry. Many Students of UG has completed there projects under her guidance. She has sound technical knowledge and has a good hand at laboratories. Her goal is to fulfil all the responsibilities to the best of her knowledge and enhance her knowledge with the new techniques of developing era.