

Ms. Pritha Banik

Ms. Pritha Banik is currently working as Assistant Professor (Civil Engineering). Her interdisciplinary research interest spans over water resources engineering, irrigation, hydraulics and fluid mechanics. She has a teaching experience of 4 yrs. She has graduated from Central Agricultural University, Imphal and Masters degree from National Institute of Technology, Kurukshetra.

She has attended many international conferences to present paper and has written one paper in International Journal of Sustainable Materials, Processes & ECO-Efficient. She is the life member of Indian Society of Hydraulics, Indian Water resources Society and AMIE etc. She has attended various FDPs organized by NITTTR Chandigarh. Presently working as Warden of the Girl's Hostel which enhances her skills of academic and administrative excellence. She has also guided students of Undergraduate to complete their projects.