

Mr. GAURAV YADAV

Assistant Professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering

Mr. Gaurav Yadav has done his B tech in Mechanical Engineering and M. Tech in Production Engineering. He is having an experience of more than 10 years in teaching core subjects of Mechanical Engineering like Manufacturing Science, , Manufacturing process, Total Quality Management. He Has also Guided final year projects in the mentioned fields. He has published a “paper on Production of bio-diesel from acid oil” in international journal of application of science and technology .

Mr. Gaurav Yadav is equipped with significant professional competence, academic and administrative strength. He has also been involved in many administrative responsibilities given to him by the university and institute from time to time as centre controller for State Engineering Entrance Examination, Assistant Superintendant for University Examination, member of Flying Squad during the University Examinations.

He is also having Wipro mission 10 x certification and Life time membership of ISTE. Presently He is working as Assistant Dean Student Welfare and Dy. Coordinator (cultural activities) in the institute.